

Trenton, and laws of the State of Tennessee, do hereby Declare a State of Emergency, and do hereby direct and order that the following policies be enacted immediately:

- 1.) The brick-and-mortar premises of all non-essential retail businesses must close to the public as long as this Order remains in effect. No customers may enter stores but all businesses may continue to provide curbside/delivery services.
- 2.) Essential retail businesses, listed below are excluded from this directive and may remain open during their normal business hours. Essential retail businesses must, wherever practicable, provide pickup services outside or adjacent to their stores for goods ordered in advance online or by phone. Online and telephone order services are permitted.
 - a. Grocery Stores and farms that sell directly to customers, and other food stores, including retailers that offer a varied assortment of foods comparable to what exists at a grocery store;
 - b. Pharmacies and alternative treatment centers
 - c. Medical supply stores
 - d. Retail Functions of gas stations and convenience stores
 - e. Hardware and Home Improvement Stores
 - f. Retail Functions of banks and other financial institutions
 - g. Retail functions of laundromats and dry-cleaning services
 - h. Pet stores
 - i. Liquor stores
 - j. Car dealerships, auto repair shops and auto parts stores.
 - k. Retail functions of mail and delivery stores
- 3.) Any essential retail business whose brick-and-mortar premises remain open to the public shall abide by social distancing practices to the extent practicable while providing essential services. These include all reasonable efforts to keep customers six feet apart and frequent use of sanitizing products on common surfaces.
- 4.) All restaurants, cafeterias, dining establishments, and food courts, with or without a liquor license, are permitted to operate their normal business hours, but are limited to offering only food delivery and/or take-out services. The on-premises consumption of alcohol and food is prohibited.
- 5.) All recreational and entertainment businesses, including but not limited to the following list, must close to the public as long as this order remains in effect:
 - a. Gyms and fitness centers and classes
 - b. Entertainment centers, including but not limited to, movie theaters, performing arts centers, concert venues and nightclubs/bars.
 - c. Facilities where personal care services are performed that, by their very nature, result in noncompliance with social distancing guidelines, including but not limited to cosmetology shops; barber shops; beauty salons; nail salons; spas, at which solely elective and cosmetic medical procedures are performed, massage parlors, tanning salons, tattoo parlors
