Rachel Tucker as Director of After School and Camp Bruins

Jackson, TN - University School of Jackson is pleased to announce the appointment of Rachel Tucker as the new Director of After School and Camp Bruins. With an impressive background in coordinating child care and customer service, Rachel brings a wealth of experience and a genuine passion for nurturing and supporting our students.

Having previously worked at the University School of Jackson as an After School Care Worker under the direction of Faith Dixon, Rachel is familiar with the school's values and commitment to student well-being. During her tenure, she managed a classroom of 1st to 5th graders, ensuring a conducive and safe environment. Rachel's dedication to student growth and effective communication with parents resulted in a positive after-school experience for all participants.

Most recently, Rachel served as an Economic Development Coordinator at the Greater Jackson Chamber of Commerce in Jackson, TN. In this role, she excelled in responding to requests for information, conducting research, and customer communication. Rachel's strong organizational skills were evident in her coordination of events and meetings for existing industries, industrial prospects, and workforce development initiatives that contributed to the recruitment process of bringing new industrial manufacturers like 6K Energy to Jackson.

Rachel also gained valuable experience as a Management Trainee at Enterprise Holdings in Memphis, TN after receiving her degree in Business Administration from Union University in May of 2020. In this position, she consistently provided exceptional customer service, ensuring the satisfaction of clients and fostering positive relationships with surrounding businesses. Rachel's ability to develop effective strategies for branch growth and employee development showcased her leadership potential and commitment to success.

Rachel's passion for education extends beyond traditional school settings. She also served as a 2nd Grade Teacher at World Overcomers Summer Dream Camp in Memphis, TN. Her exceptional classroom management skills, tailored tutoring strategies, and creativity in designing engaging games and events enhanced the camp experience for all students involved.

In addition to her professional achievements, Rachel Tucker is actively involved in volunteer work. She currently coordinates childcare activities for 3 to 6-year-olds at Northside Assembly of God in Jackson, TN, during Sunday and Wednesday services.

"We are thrilled to welcome Rachel Tucker as the Director of After School at the University School of Jackson," said Lower School Director Courtney Burnette. "Her extensive experience in education, child care, and project management, combined with her genuine dedication to the well-being of students, make her the ideal candidate for this role. We are confident that Rachel will lead our After Care program to new heights of excellence, creating a nurturing and engaging environment for all students."

As the Director of After School, Rachel Tucker will work closely with administration, parents, and the broader school community to ensure the after-school program aligns with USJ's mission of providing comprehensive educational experiences.
